

FUNDING ALERT

*A Service of the Office of the Chief Financial Officer
Office of Grants Management and Development
Internet Address: www.dccfo.com*

Volume 2, Issue 29

July 26, 1999

FEDERAL FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Targeted Provider (HIV/AIDS) Education Demonstration Grants. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration announces funding for demonstration programs that will provide treatment, education and training to health care and support service providers who deliver Ryan White Care Act Services. Deadline is September 2. Eligible applicants are public and nonprofit entities, and schools and academic health science centers. $3.3 million will fund 5 - 10 awards. For additional information contact Brenda Woods-Francis at (301) 443-0415 or on the internet at www.hrsa.gov/jab/.

Buckle Up America Seat Belt Campaign. The U.S. Department of Transportation, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration announces funding for a cooperative agreement program to support the Buckle Up America Campaign. This includes both seat belt and child safety seat usage. Deadline is August 19. Eligible applicant must be a metropolitan law enforcement agency. Four awards will be made for $250,000. For additional information contact Mr. Joseph Comella at (202) 366-9568.

AIDS Education and Training Centers Program. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration announces funds to support three AIDS Education and Training Centers. One of these Centers will be in the Mid Atlantic Region which encompasses the District of Columbia. These Centers are to provide state-of-the-art treatment education, training consultation and support to health care professionals treating HIV seropositive patients. Deadline is September 1.

$2.5 million is available to fund three grants. For additional information contact Mrs. Juanita Koziol at (301) 443-6364 or on the internet at www.hrsa.gov/hab/

Developmental Disabilities. The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services announces funds to support programs in three areas:

1. Ongoing Data Collection and Information Dissemination. Collect data on public expenditures, residential services, employment and economic status, and other factors as they impact on the independence, productivity and integration into the community of persons with developmental disabilities.
2. Breaking Through the Glass Ceiling to Attain First Class Citizenship. To strengthen and expand national leadership for the 21st Century by and for people with developmental disabilities and families of children with disabilities.
3. Reinventing Quality: Best Practices Information Dissemination. Development of an information dissemination project on best planning practices in consumer responsive services and quality assurance processes in programs for people with developmental disabilities.

Deadline is August 23. Awards range from $200,000 to $250,000 per year for a three year project period. Eligible applicants are State agencies, public or private nonprofit organizations, institutions or agencies. For additional information contact Pat Laird at (202) 690-7447 or on the internet at www.acf.dhhs.gov/programs/add

FUNDING ALERT

Information Technology Initiative. The Corporation for National and Community Service announces funds to support programs that increase access to information technologies in selected K-12 school clusters, in conjunction with NextDay, a grassroots school wiring initiative. In the District of Columbia the cluster consists of Walker-Jones Elementary, Terrel Middle and Dunbar High. Eligible applicants are national nonprofit organizations that propose to operate in more than one state and will serve at least one cluster of schools in at least two states. Letters of intent August 17 and deadline September 9. $2.225 million is available to fund up to seven awards. For additional information contact Adin C. Miller at (202) 606-5000 ext.428.

Martin Luther King Service Day Initiative. Corporation for National and Community Service announces funds for planning and carrying out service opportunities in conjunction with the federal legal holiday honoring the birthday of Martin Luther King Jr. on January 17, 2000. There are two levels of funding. $3,500 will support national service and community volunteering projects of a relatively smaller scale and limited geographical scope. $10,000 will support large-scale service projects. Deadline is August 26. Eligible applicants are nonprofit organizations, State Commissions, volunteer centers, institutions of higher education, local education agencies, educational institutions, local or state governments, and private organizations. For additional information contact Thomas Harmon at (804) 771-2197.

Healthy Homes Initiative. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development announces funds to demonstrate cost effective, preventive measures to correct multiple safety and health hazards in the home environment which produce serious disease and injuries in children. $3.5 million is available to fund 3 to 5 awards. Eligible applicants are research institutions, not-for-profit institutions, and for-profit firms located in the U.S. and State and local governments. Deadline is September 23. For further information contact Ellen Taylor at

(202) 755-1785 ext. 116 or on the internet at www.hud.gov

Development of a Training Curriculum for Investigating Allegations of Staff Sexual Misconduct With Inmates. The U.S. Department of Justice, National Institute of Corrections announces funds to develop a standard, core curriculum for training persons responsible for the investigations of staff sexual misconduct in correctional settings. $60,000 to fund one cooperative agreement. Deadline is August 27. Eligible applicants are any private or non-profit organizations, institution, individual, or team with expertise in production of training videos and related training materials. For additional information contact Judy Evans at (202) 307-3106 ext. 159. or on the internet at www.nicic.org. (Click on What's New and Cooperative agreements.)

DISTRICT FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (S.A.N.E.) Program. The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds to award one grant for $200,000 to a hospital that has worked in conjunction with the D.C. based Rape Crisis Center. The purpose of the grant is to reduce crime and improve public safety through the initiation of a S.A.N.E program. The deadline is August 23 at 6:00 p.m. The application packet will be released on July 28. Applications can be obtained at 717 14th St., NW, Suite 1200, Washington, DC. For additional information contact Dionne Reeder at 727-6537.

Crime Victims Assistance Grants. The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds to support programs that enhance Crime Victim Services in the District of Columbia. There are four categories of funding opportunities. Applicants may submit proposals in each category. Funding priorities are programs that deal with: Victims of Child Abuse, Victims of Sexual Abuse, Victims of Domestic Violence and Previously Under Served Priority Areas. $865,450.00 is available to fund applications under this solicitation.

FUNDING ALERT

Deadline is August 26 at 6:00 p.m. Eligible applicants are nonprofit organizations and non-federal government agencies. Application packets will be available on July 27. Applications can be obtained at 717 14th St., NW, Suite 1200, Washington DC. For additional information contact Andrea Edmond at 727-6537.

Drug Prevention and Children-At-Risk Fund.

The D.C. Department of Recreation and Parks (DCRP) is seeking applications from non-profit organizations that operate programs that focus on promoting the positive self-worth of youth under 18 and have demonstrable experience in working with at-risk youth. The maximum award is $10,000 for an individual program and $25,000 for a collaborative effort of two or more organizations. Deadline is September 15. Applications can be obtained by calling DCRP at (202) 673-2088.

Other District Opportunities Still Open

Crime Prevention for Disabled Persons.

The Office of Grants Management and Development announces funds for one award at $200,000 which focuses on crime prevention for disabled persons. The goal of the grant is to provide personal safety training to adults with disabilities (both physical and developmental), their caregivers and provide training to police officers on how to communicate and interact with persons with disabilities. Deadline is August 12 at 6:00 p.m.

Office on Aging, Fiscal Year 2000 Grant. The DC Office on Aging is soliciting applications to provide a full array of services and activities to enhance the overall health and well being of the senior population, with particular emphasis on the low-income minority elderly. Deadline is August 24.

Applications for the District grants listed above may be obtained from OGMD at 717 14th Street, NW, Suite 1200 or on the internet at www.dccfo.com under grants. For additional information, please call OGMD at 202-727-6537.

PRIVATE FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Elizabeth Glaser Foundation. Grants up to $10,000 are available to support hospitals and clinical facilities which provide medical care to significant populations of HIV-infected infants, children, adolescents and pregnant women. The goal is to address needs not met by existing programs, such as meal vouchers, transportation and child care. Deadline is October 21. For additional information contact the Elizabeth Glaser Foundation, 2950 31 St., #125 Santa Monica, CA 90405, (310) 314-1459 or on the internet at www.pedaids.org.

Fannie Mae Foundation. Maxwell Awards of Excellence program will award grants to nonprofits that have provided quality housing for low-income families and individuals. To be eligible the nonprofit must have produced a minimum of five units and be placed in service between July 1, 1998, and June 30, 1999. Deadline is September 15. For additional information call (202) 274-8000 or on the internet at www.fanniemaefoundation.org.

The American Academy of Pediatrics.

Community Access to Child Care Planning program supports projects increasing children's access to health care. Grants range from $2,500 to $10,000. Priority for funding is community-based programs focused on removing barriers to access. This is a planning grant. A pediatrician must be the primary contact. The deadline is August 27. For additional information call (800) 433-9016, ext. 7632 or on the internet at www.aap.org/visit/plnfndhm.htm.